DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-4, 7, 8, and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Baker (4,936,811).

Baker discloses an axle boot comprising a joint housing 16 having plural radial recesses 16b and a bellows 12. The bellows is made of TPE and has an integral connecting collar 15 including a plurality of indentations projecting radially inward and adapted to recesses 16b (see Fig. 2 and col. 3, lines 62-65). A plurality of compensating pieces 22 is attached to an outer surface of the collar to form a cylindrical outer circumference for a clamp 23. The pieces are all connected and include ring sections (near 22) to connect adjacent pieces. The projecting portion of the pieces has a length corresponding to the recess.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 5, 9, and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Baker in view of Devers (6,672,596).

Art Unit: 3676

Baker does not disclose ring sections wherein at least one ring section is elastically deformable or that the pieces are made of more than one material connect all the pieces. Devers teaches an axle boot having a joint housing and bellows. Devers teaches a plurality of compensating pieces with the bellows. The pieces are connected as a single piece component having ring sections (near 32), wherein at least one is elastically deformable (see col. 4, line 12). Devers also teaches the compensating pieces include more than one material (i.e. insert 44 is a harder material than the rest of element 40). The pieces are a hollow (air-filled) body having flexible walls (e.g. Fig. 7). Devers teaches that this compensating component provides a more uniform stiffness and compression, thus providing a more uniform sealing and clamping force. Therefore, it would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the compensating component of Baker with that taught by Devers to provide a more uniform sealing and clamping force.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claim 6 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
